Dear Christopher Hemmel,

I am writing to you today to thank you for the wonderful job you did handling my case. Not only did I receive the desired results in the verdict, but there are many other factors that add to my gratitude.

From the first minute that you were made aware of my case you treated me with respect and always made me feel as I was an important part of your caseload. Never did I feel as I was a burden to you when I would call you with questions or concerns regarding my case no matter how small or minor they were. You were kind, friendly, caring and compassionate. I always had a deep sense that you were genuinely concerned for me and the outcome of my case. Furthermore, there is a desire and a love that you have for your work that is evident from initial consultation until the closing of the case.

In closing, please be assured that in the future if I or anyone I know has a need for first rate counsel, yours will be the first name that is mentioned.

Sincerely yours,

Charles [REDACTED]
